

LATEST NEWS FROM EUROPE.

THE IMPENDING BATTLE BETWEEN THE TORIES AND THE LIBERALS.

The expectation of compromise against the Queen taking part in the coronation of the Emperor, which has been the subject of much discussion, is now being abandoned. The Queen is expected to be present at the coronation, and the Emperor is expected to be present at the coronation.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The week has been one of complete seclusion. Everybody would have sworn at its commencement that compromise between the two parties was certain, and how the situation is changed! The fact is, however, that a single election and a single man have been mainly instrumental in bringing this transformation about. The success in South Warwickshire has turned the heads of the Tories, who are now firmly convinced that they will win all the counties, through farmers on the land demanding protection on account of the low price of wheat and cattle, and on the other hand the prospect of equality of rights with their despised laborers.

The politician chiefly responsible for the change in the House of Commons is Mr. Lowther, familiarly known as Jimmy Lowther, the son of the late Lord Lowther, and now a member of the House. He is a young man of the face of a British bulldog, but an indomitable will and dauntless courage. The prospect fills with considerable foreboding those Conservatives who represent urban constituencies, as they cannot see any chance of reconciling their working-class supporters to the assertion of the domination of Lords over the popular representatives.

Lord Salisbury is very firm, and has been resolved on fight all through. The doubt as to the attitude of his supporters are declared to be unfounded, and some even expect an increase of his majority. A great meeting called at the Queen's Club, the chief rendezvous of the Conservatives, for the purpose of discussing the proposed compromise, was attended by a large number of the party, and the result was a declaration of compromise is always managed by backstairs influence, and this consultation of the party is rendered necessary by the desire to have resistance sanctioned by general consent.

The chief reason of the Tory obstinacy is the expectation that the bill will be passed by the Liberal majority, and that if the bill is passed, the Tories will be in a position to demand a new election, and the result of the election will be in their favor.

HE WON'T PAY HIS RENT.

Disinfectant Dealer, Wakelind, who has been arrested for not paying his rent, is now in the hands of the law.

James W. Wakelind is a ruddy-faced old man who sells disinfectants and jewelry for a living, and deals principally with actresses and Washington Market men. He is well known around the market, and hangs around there every day.

Thomas H. Stewart, who keeps a shirt store in Greenwich street, was in the habit of eating house on the 9th of October, and met there Mr. Wakelind, who was discussing enthusiastically with him the merits of a new disinfectant.

Mr. Stewart did not bet, but he told Mr. Wakelind that he had a friend who wanted to bet on Cleveland. Mr. Wakelind took down the friend's address, and on the 11th of October called upon Mr. Charles Knapp, vice merchant of Washington street. Mr. Knapp was so cock sure about Cleveland that his visitor made a bet with him, and they agreed to bet $100 each.

They did not bet on Cleveland, but on the fact that Mr. Wakelind would not pay his rent. Mr. Wakelind had a bet on Cleveland, and he had a bet on the fact that he would not pay his rent.

Mr. Knapp was sitting behind his desk reading a newspaper, and he saw Mr. Wakelind enter the room. Mr. Wakelind was in a state of great excitement, and he was talking to Mr. Knapp about his bet.

THE PESTILENCE IN PARIS.

THIRTY-NINE DEATHS FROM CHOLERA IN TWELVE HOURS YESTERDAY.

The Outlook slightly improved, but the flight from the city continued—Measures to protect American—An Order About Began.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The total number of deaths from cholera in this city yesterday was 39, all but 16 of which occurred in the hospitals. In the twelve hours ending at noon today there were 29 deaths.

There was one death at Nantes today. The Municipal Council yesterday, after a heated debate, rejected a vote of 50 to 11 the proposal to grant 5,000 francs to the Breton Asylum for Old People, where the cholera has created serious ravages. A resolution, however, was adopted, by a vote of 24 to 23, which spoke in denunciation of subsidies to monasteries, but appointed a committee whose duty it will be to see to it that all sufferers from cholera in such institutions receive proper attention.

The Council likewise voted an appropriation of 400,000 francs for the furtherance of the adoption of sanitary measures in private houses. It is now alleged that the outbreak at the Breton Asylum was due to the stoppage of the supply of broken victuals, which has come about through the prevailing anti-clerical fanaticism. A man who had been faithfully employed as a waiter in the asylum, and had been the deadly epidemic, was found to be a Russian. The Russian Embassy announces that a quarantine of twenty-one days will be required at the Russian frontier in the case of all persons arriving from infected countries. Many officials are visiting the cholera hospitals.

There was a sharp frost last night, and this morning the frost was even sharper. Mr. Lemaire, the Police Inspector of District, died this morning.

Dr. Warren Bay has written a letter to the papers in the same strain as that adopted by Dr. MacGavin in his letter to Gallivan's Messenger. He thinks there is no occasion for quarantines and to provide soup kitchens for the English and American poor. The Rev. Dr. Gill and Mr. MacGavin, who are both in the city, are both in the city.

Two suspicious cases of illness have occurred at the Hotel de la Ville. The cases are both in the city, and the cases are both in the city.

The cholera refugees were terror-stricken when they saw the cholera had broken out at the Hotel de la Ville. The cases are both in the city, and the cases are both in the city.

A meeting was held here yesterday of American and English residents of the city, for the relief of sufferers from cholera. A resolution was adopted to distribute a list of provisions and to provide soup kitchens for the English and American poor. The Rev. Dr. Gill and Mr. MacGavin, who are both in the city, are both in the city.

From all the indications the situation today is slightly improved. The frost, however, has been very severe, and the cases are both in the city, and the cases are both in the city.

The weather in London is cold, but the cases are both in the city, and the cases are both in the city.
